

WE ARE HIRING

UNIVERSITY of MARYLAND
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

University of Maryland

The University of Maryland, Baltimore, School Mental Health Program staff provides a full continuum of mental health services and consultation to students enrolled in Baltimore City Schools. Services include prevention, early intervention, and treatment. This is an in-person, 12-month position with excellent benefits and training for psychology fellows.

Postdoctoral Fellowship

Previous School Experience Required

Benefits!

- Paid vacation, holidays, sick leave, and comprehensive health insurance, including dental and vision
- Professional learning and development programs
- Training/consultation from the National Center for School Mental Health
- National Health Service Corps loan forgiveness up to $75,000* if employed after the fellowship
- Child Care Grant Opportunities - For daycare and summer camps*
- Live Near Your Work Program for home buyers- receive thousands toward home purchase*
- Discounts at nearby businesses including Lexington Market
- Fitness membership discounts as well as free health and mental health resources
- And much more! Contact Jennifer Cox, 443-695-4342 with questions

Send CV to nlever@som.umaryland.edu and jfcox@som.umaryland.edu